Live Music Karaoke Song Book

Your Host: Dave Caruso,
"Man of a Thousand Songs"

Welcome to Live Music Karaoke!

It's just like "canned" Karaoke, but with a twist! The music is live and you'll be reading the lyric off a computer screen on the piano. There's no "bouncing ball," but Dave will count you in, turn the pages and help you keep your place, and follow you as you sing.

Step 1: Find a Song

It's best to choose a song you know pretty well. There are over 1,000 songs to choose from. To make it easier, the songs are arranged by categories like Title, Artist, Girl Singers, etc.

Step 2: Fill out a request slip:

- Song title
- Artist
- Your name (if you want to sing)
- Your phone number and e-mail address (in case you're a finalist)

Step 3: Put your request on the piano

Dave will call your name when it's your turn to sing. Good luck and have fun!
